Circular No. 33-GAD of 2015

Dated 02-12-2015.

In the capacity of a major shareholder of the various State Public Sector Undertaking, the Hon'ble Governor has taken strict note of the following :—

- (i) The Managing Directors of Public Sector Undertakings invariably fail to hold the Annual General Meetings within the financial year.

- (ii) The statutory requirement of serving an advance notice of twenty-one days, as prescribed under section 101(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, is not followed by every Managing Director.
- (iii) Managing Directors seek approval of the Governor for curtailing the notice period for circulating the required papers to the shareholders, etc.
- (iv) In some cases Public Sector Undertakings have not held Annual General Meetings for 6-7 years.

While expressing his concern, the Hon'ble Governor has decided that from 1st January, 2016 :—

- (i) He shall not accord approval to any Annual General Meeting which is held without the statutory advance notice.
- (ii) The concerned Administrative Secretary shall furnish clear reasons(s) in case the Annual General Meeting is not held within the financial year.
- (iii) In case a proxy is to be nominated for a delayed Annual General Meeting not held within the financial year, the file shall be routed through the Chief Secretary and the Principal Secretary to the Chief Minister.

In view of the concerns raised by the Hon'ble Governor, the undersigned is directed to request all the Administrative Secretaries and the Managing Directors of all the Public Sector Undertakings of the State to strictly follow these instructions/guidelines.

Laws, Regulations and Rules passed thereunder.

HIGH COURT OF JAMMU AND KASHMIR
(Office of the Registrar General at Jammu)

Notification

No. 1063 dated 08-03-2016

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 30 of the Jammu and Kashmir State Civil Courts Act, Svt. 1977, the High Court has made the following Rules :—

CHAPTER I

1. Short title and commencement.—(i) These Rules may be called the Jammu and Kashmir Ministerial Staff of the Subordinate Courts (Recruitment and Conditions of Service) Rules, 2016.

(ii) These Rules shall come into force with effect from the date of their publication in the Government Gazette.

2. Definitions.—In the Rules unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) ‘Administrative Department’ for the purpose of these Rules and all other Rules applicable to the ministerial officials means the High Court of Jammu and Kashmir exercising its control on ministerial staff through the Chief Justice ;
- (b) ‘Chief Justice’ means the Chief Justice of the High Court of Jammu and Kashmir ;
- (c) ‘Competent Authority’ means the Chief Justice or such other authority as may be prescribed by the regulations ;
- (d) ‘Competitive Examination’ means the Examination in such papers, such other practical tests like typing, stenography etc. and such viva voce test or other tests prescribed by these Rules or as may be prescribed by the Chief Justice from time to time for different posts ;
- (e) ‘Departmental Promotion Committee’ means a Committee set up by the Competent Authority for purposes of preparing the list of eligible persons for promotion to a category of posts under these Rules ;
- (f) ‘District Cadre’ means a cadre of the Department in the District comprising all the posts shown in Schedule ‘A’ as District Cadre posts ;
- (g) ‘District Recruitment Board (Judicial)’ means the Board constituted under these Rules or Regulations for the appointment of a person borne on a District Cadre ;

- (h) 'Divisional Cadre' means the cadre of the Department in the Division comprising all posts shown in Schedule (A) as Divisional cadre posts ;
- (i) 'Divisional Recruitment Board' means the Board constituted under the Rules or Regulations for appointment of a person to the post borne on the Divisional Cadre ;
- (j) 'Government' means the Government of Jammu and Kashmir ;
- (k) 'High Court' means the High Court of Jammu and Kashmir.
- (l) 'Judge' means the Judge of the High Court of Jammu and Kashmir ;
- (m) 'Ministerial Officials' means staff of every class and category working in the Subordinate Courts of the State ;
- (n) 'Regulations' means the Regulations as prescribed by the Chief Justice under these Rules.
- (o) 'Service' means the Jammu and Kashmir Ministerial Officials of Subordinate Courts Service ;
- (p) 'State' means the State of Jammu and Kashmir ;
- (q) 'State cadre' means the cadre of the department in the State comprising all posts shown in Schedule 'A' as State cadre posts.

3. Interpretation.—If, at any time, there arises any doubt regarding the application or interpretation of these rules, the same shall be decided by the Chief Justice whose decision in the matter shall be final.

4. Delegation.—The High Court or the Chief Justice, as the case may be, may, by a special or general order, delegate all or any of the powers and functions as conferred or enjoined under these rules, to any Judge or an officer of the High Court.

CHAPTER II

5. Constitution of J&K Ministerial Staff of Subordinate Courts Service.—“J&K Ministerial Staff of Subordinate Courts Service” shall come into being from the date of coming into force of these Rules. The service shall consist of posts as shown in the Schedule ‘A’. Persons already serving as Ministerial Staff at various levels and in different capacities prior to the coming into force of these rules shall form part of the service in their respective classes and categories. The grades of all these posts shall be the same as shown in Schedule ‘A’ subject to the change, modification or addition or revision as may be approved and sanctioned by the Government from time to time on the recommendation of the Chief Justice or otherwise.

6. Strength and composition of the cadre.—The State, Divisional and District Cadre of the Service shall consist of such number of permanent and temporary posts as stand sanctioned in the respective cadres on the date of enforcement of these Rules and such number of posts as may be sanctioned from time to time.

7. Appointment to the service.—(i) Appointment to the Service shall be made—

- (a) by direct recruitment ;
- (b) by promotion ; and
- (c) partly by direct recruitment and partly by promotion.

(ii) In case suitable candidates are not available for appointment in a mode prescribed in the Schedule, viz., by promotion or direct recruitment, the posts may be filled up by other mode or in such other manner as the Chief Justice may from time to time prescribe.

8. Age for direct recruitment.—Age for direct recruitment in the service shall be the same as is provided and is made applicable to the State Government Service from time to time :

Provided that the age bar may be relaxed in general or individual cases for the reasons to be recorded in writing by the Chief Justice, if some special circumstances so warrant.

9. Probation.—Persons appointed whether by direct recruitment or by promotion, to any class or category in the service shall be on probation for two years and their confirmation shall be subject to their clearing probation period satisfactorily. The Chief Justice may extend the period of probation in respect of a person appointed for reasons to be recorded in writing.

10. Qualifications for appointment.—(i) No person shall be eligible for appointment in the service, whether by direct recruitment or on promotion, unless he fulfills the requisite qualifications prescribed for such appointment in the Schedule-‘B’ to these Rules :

Provided that while granting promotion to a higher post, officials who are in service on the date these rules come into force shall be considered notwithstanding their qualifications and due regard shall be given to the service rendered by such employee. Chief Justice may grant relaxation in academic qualification to an in-service candidate in such cases, if he is otherwise suitable for the post and his service record has remained satisfactory :

Provided that in exceptional cases, for reasons to be recorded in writing, the Chief Justice may relax the qualification bar, either generally or in individual cases.

(ii) Only permanent residents of Jammu and Kashmir State shall be eligible for appointment in the service.

11. Reservations in appointments.—While making appointments either by direct recruitment or promotion, reservation shall be made in accordance with the rules and orders issued from time to time for members of the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes or any other category or class of permanent residents of the State for whom reservation may be made under orders of the Government subject to such modifications as are deemed necessary by the High Court. The Chief Justice may from time to time, either generally or with relation to any particular recruitment, issue guidelines for the purposes of making such reservation.

12. Procedure for appointment.—(i) The appointments of ministerial staff of the Divisional Cadre and the District Cadre shall be made by the Chief Justice and the District Judge of the District concerned respectively, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedure prescribed, therefor under the, Regulations framed by the Chief Justice. The Regulations inter alia, provide for the following :—

- (a) Method of selection to a particular post ;
- (b) The manner in which applications are to be invited from prospective candidate ;
- (c) The holding of written examination for preliminary scrutiny of candidates or selection, as the case may be ;
- (d) The syllabus prescribed for such written examinations and marks earmarked therefor ;
- (e) Conduct of the viva voce, shorthand and the type test and the marks prescribed therefor ;
- (f) The Constitution of Selection Committee either general or in case of specified classes of selection/appointment, if necessary ;
- (g) The number of candidates to be called for viva voce/shorthand/typing test based upon the result of written examination, with reference to the availability of posts in any particular class or category ;
- (h) The preparation of select/waiting list/and the period for which it may remain valid ; and
- (i) Constitution of a District or Divisional Recruitment Board.

13. Discipline and conduct.—In regard to all matters governing the discipline and conduct of the members of the service, including discipline, suspension, imposition of penalty, retirement on superannuation or otherwise, including voluntary retirement, removal or dismissal from service or matters related thereto, directly or indirectly, and not specifically prescribed in or provided for by these rules, the correspondence rules applicable to the employees of the State Government, including J&K Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1956 shall be applicable :

Provided that where any of the power relating to these matters is to be exercised by the Government under various rules, same shall, under these rules, be exercised by the Chief Justice and power vested in the Government in this behalf shall deemed to have vested in the Chief Justice.

14. Residuary matters.—In regard to matters relating to leave, pension gratuity, medical reimbursement, compulsory and voluntary retirements and such other matters for which no specific provisions have been made in these rules, the rules, regulations, order and policies, as are applicable, from time to time, to employees in the State Government shall be applicable to the members of the service :

Provided that where any of the power relating to these matters is to be exercised by the Government under various rules, same shall, under these rules, be exercised by the Chief Justice and power vested in the Government in this behalf shall deemed to have vested in the Chief Justice.

15. Transfers.—(i) Within district, transfers of Ministerial Staff may be ordered by the District Judge of the District concerned.

(ii) Inter-District and Inter-Divisional transfers of Ministerial Staff may be ordered by the Chief Justice :

Provided that the Chief Justice shall, also have the powers to effect transfers within district in the interest of administration.

(iii) The Chief Justice may transfer, depute or induct an employee in the High Court Service in the administrative exigency and on according consideration to all eligible and similarly situated officials. The Chief Justice may transfer by way of deputation a Ministerial Official to the High Court

Service in the administrative exigency and on according consideration to all eligible and similarly situated officials.

(iv) The Chief Justice may, from time to time issue directions/orders regulating the policy of transfers of ministerial staff, including transfer by way of deputation.

16. Maintain of character rolls, their communication and representation against adverse entries.—

- (I) (a) An annual character roll shall be recorded and maintained for each member of the service ;
  - (b) Entries in the character roll of the members of the service belonging to the Divisional Cadre shall be recorded annually by, an officer appointed in this behalf by the Chief Justice ;
  - (c) Entries in the character rolls of the members belonging to the District Cadre shall be recorded by the District Judge concerned ;
  - (d) In respect of members of the service, belonging to both Divisional as well as the District Cadre, the Presiding Officers of the Court, where such member is serving, shall submit his report/assessment annually along with character roll-form prescribed for this purpose to the Officer mentioned in sub-clause (b) above or the District Judge concerned mentioned in sub-clause (c) above and, while recording the annual character roll, both of them shall ordinarily be guided by such report assessment of the Presiding Officer of the Court unless concerned Officer or the District Judge, as the case may be, comes to a different conclusion and disagrees with the report assessment of the Presiding Officer, for reasons to be recorded in writing.
- (II) Adverse entries in the character roll shall be communicated to the concerned member of the service.

- (III) If any person is aggrieved by any entry(ies) recorded in his character roll he may make a representation in writing to the authority regarding such entry(ies) within 30 days from the date of communication of such entry(ies). On receipt and consideration of such representation such authority may dispose it of on its merits and pass appropriate orders.
- (IV) Any person aggrieved by the passing of an order mentioned in clause (II) above, may prefer an appeal within 60 days from the date of passing of such an order to the Chief Justice who on consideration of such appeal, shall pass appropriate orders.

17. Crossing of efficiency bar.—No Member of Ministerial Staff shall be allowed to cross the efficiency bar prescribed in the scale unless,—

- (i) he possess the qualification, if any, prescribed for holding the scale ;
- (ii) his character rolls for the last three years have been good ; and
- (iii) his work and conduct is certified to be good by the Presiding Officer of the Court where he is working.

18. Seniority.—(i) Seniority shall be determined and maintained separately for each category and post in the establishment ;

(ii) Separate seniority lists shall be maintained in the State, Divisional and District Cadre in the High Court.

(iii) General principles of seniority and those specifically contained in the J&K Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1956 shall apply with respect to matters relating to seniority in the service.

19. Powers to dispense with the application of rules.—Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, where the Chief Justice is satisfied that the operation of any rule causes undue hardship in any particular case, he may by order, dispense with or relax the requirements of that rule, to such extent and subject to such conditions as he may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner ; provided that the case is not dealt with in a manner less favourable to the concerned than in accordance with the rules.

20. All matters of appointment, promotion, seniority, suspension, leave and punishment of the ministerial staff of the Divisional Cadre shall be decided by the competent authority.

21. (i) An appeal shall lie to the Chief Justice against any order passed by a District Judge relating to suspension, promotion, seniority or any punishment imposed by him. An appeal against the order of Chief Justice regarding dismissal or removal shall lie to two Judges of the High Court to be nominated by the Chief Justice.

(ii) The aggrieved employee shall file the appeal before the Competent Authority within thirty days from the date of receipt of the order by him.

22. Suspension.—Any member of the service belonging to the Divisional or District Cadre may, for sufficient reasons and in accordance with the principles laid down in the J&K Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1956 be suspended by the District Judge of the District concerned where he is serving at the relevant time. The suspension, however by the said District Judge of the members of the service belonging to the Divisional Cadre shall be subject to confirmation by the Chief Justice.

23. Repeal and saving.—(i) All rules, orders, notifications or directions corresponding to or inconsistent with these rules and in force immediately before the commencement of these rules are hereby repealed.

(ii) Notwithstanding such repeal any order made or action taken under the provisions of the rules repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.

3. Confidential Record.—(i) Annual Confidential Record (ACR) shall be prepared in Form-B in respect of every District Judge and in Form-C in respect of other Members of the Service.

(ii) The period for the purpose of recording Annual Confidential Record shall be the year commencing from 1st day of January and ending by the 31st day of December :

Provided that in respect of a probationer, Confidential Record shall be prepared for every period of four months of service till he/she is confirmed or his/her probation is declared on its satisfactory completion :

Provided further that in respect of Member of the Service, who has worked for more than three months in more than one District in any year, separate Confidential Record for each such period shall be recorded.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything provided hereinabove at (i), a Special Confidential Record (SCR) shall be recorded by the Administrative Judge or District Unit Head whenever called for by the High Court, in order to assess the suitability of any Member of the Service for confirmation or promotion.

4. Furnishing of particulars by the Member.—(i) Every Member of Service in the cadre of District Judge including those who are on deputation to other departments or on other duty shall submit particulars in Form-A to the High Court before 28th/29th February of every year covering information upto the 31st December of the preceding year.

(ii) Every Member of the Service other than the District Judge including those who are on deputation to other departments or on other duty shall submit a statement in Form ‘A’ so as to reach the District Unit Head concerned before 15th February of every year covering information up to the 31st December of the preceding year.

5. Preparation and transmission of records in respect of Members of the Service other than District Judges.—

- (i) (a) The Annual Confidential Record of every Member of Service including those who are on deputation to other departments or on other duty, shall be prepared by the District Unit Head concerned in Form 'C'. The Annual Confidential Record, in Form 'C' along with particulars received in Form 'A' shall be submitted to the High Court before the end of February of every year ;
  - (b) The record shall thereafter be placed before the Administrative Judge who shall record his opinion ;
  - (c) In case the Administrative Judge, who ceases to be a Judge of the High Court, has not recorded his opinion before his relinquishment, his successor or the Judge nominated by the Chief Justice shall record his opinion on the confidential record ;
  - (d) If any adverse remarks are recorded by the District Unit Head and not dissented from by the Administrative Judge or if any adverse remarks are recorded by the Administrative Judge, then the Confidential Record shall be placed before the Chief Justice who shall record his remarks.
- (ii) (a) If a Member of Service has worked for more than three months in more than one District in a "Year", all the District Unit Heads concerned shall prepare and submit a Confidential Record in respect of such member for the respective period in the same manner as provided hereinabove at (i) ;
- (b) When a Member of Service is transferred within three months, from one District to another, the District Unit Head of the District to which the member is transferred and working as on 31st December of the "Year" shall prepare the Confidential Record of the Member for the “Year” after obtaining required particulars for respective period from the District Unit Heads of the Districts from which he was transferred ;

- (iii) (a) Where a District Unit Head retires during a year, he shall, before relinquishing his Office, prepare and submit Confidential Records in respect of such Members of Service who have worked under his control for more than three months in that year in the same manner as provided hereinabove at (i).
- (b) Where a Member of Service retires during the year, the District Unit Head under whom he has worked for more than three months, in that year, shall prepare and submit a Confidential Record in respect of that Member of Service covering such period in the same manner as provided hereinabove at (i).

6. Preparation of records in respect of District Judges including those on deputation or on other duty.—(i) In respect of a District Judge, the Administrative Judge shall record the Confidential Record in the same manner and within the same time as provided hereinabove at 5, in Form ‘B’.

(ii) The Annual Confidential Record (ACR) in respect of District Judges who are on deputation to other departments shall be prepared by the Administrative Judge of the District in which they have been posted on deputation and are working or by any other Judge nominated for the purpose by the Chief Justice, in Form ‘B’, in the same manner and within the same time as provided hereinabove at 5.

(iii) Where an Administrative Judge of a District ceases to be a Judge of the High Court during the “Year”, he shall before relinquishing his office prepare the Annual Confidential Record (ACR) in respect of District Judges or any Member of Service who are on deputation to other departments, who have worked in that District for more than three months in that year, in the same manner as provided hereinabove at 5 :

Provided that in case the Administrative Judge, who ceased to be a Judge of the High Court, has not prepared the confidential records before his relinquishment, his successor or the Judge nominated for the purpose by the Chief Justice shall prepare the confidential record.

(iv) The Annual Confidential Record (ACR) prepared by the Administrative Judge or any other Judge nominated by the Chief Justice, under this rule, shall be placed before the Chief Justice, who shall record his remarks.

7. Preparation of records in respect of District Judges and other Members of Service on deputation to the High Court.—The Annual Confidential Record (ACR) in respect of any Member of Service who is on deputation to the High Court shall be prepared by the Chief Justice or any other Judge nominated for the purpose by the Chief Justice, in Form ‘B’.

If the Annual Confidential Record (ACR) of any Member of Service who is on deputation to the High Court, prepared by a Judge nominated by the Chief Justice, contains adverse remarks, then the Confidential Record shall be placed before the Chief Justice who shall record his remarks.

8. Communication of entries in Annual Confidential Record.—
(i) All entries in Annual Confidential Record (ACR) or Special Confidential Record (SCR), whether “Outstanding”, “Very Good”, “Good”, “Average”, “Fair” or “Poor”, shall be communicated, by the Registrar General of High Court or by any other Officer authorized in this behalf by the Chief Justice, to the Member of the Service concerned within three months from the date on which the Annual Confidential Record or the Special Confidential Record is completed as the case may be, under due acknowledgement from the Member of Service concerned.

(ii) The factum of communication of entries in Annual Confidential Record (ACR) or Special Confidential Record (SCR) shall be recorded in the Confidential Record.

9. Representation against adverse remarks.—(i) Every Member of the Service, to whom the entries in Annual Confidential Record (ACR) or Special Confidential Record (SCR) are communicated, shall within six weeks from the date of receipt of that communication by him/her, submit his/her representation, if any, against the entries he considers adverse, to the High Court and the same shall be placed immediately thereafter before the Administrative Judge or the Judge nominated by the Chief Justice or the Chief Justice, who had made or approved the adverse remarks, as the case may be, who may pass such orders as he deems fit on consideration of such representation. The orders, passed by the Administrative Judge or the Judge nominated by the Chief Justice, on such representation shall be placed before the Chief Justice for final orders.

(ii) The decision taken on such representation shall be communicated to the Member of the Service concerned.

(iii) No further representation on the decision of the High Court shall be entertained.

10. Punishments.—The pendency of any disciplinary proceedings shall not be recorded in the Annual Confidential Record in respect of any Member of the Service. However, a copy of the final order in all disciplinary proceedings where a penalty is imposed shall be included in the Annual Confidential Record and necessary entry therefor shall be made by the Registrar General of the High Court.

11. Register to watch the disposal of the record.—A register in Form-D shall be maintained by the Registrar General of the High Court and the entries made thereon shall have authentication of the Joint Registrar concerned.

12. Power to issue clarifications.—Whenever the Registry entertains a doubt in any individual case as to the authority competent to record the ACR/SCR in respect of any Member of Service under circumstances not covered in the above guidelines, then, the Chief Justice would decide the same and the decision of the Chief Justice shall be final. The Chief Justice shall have the power to issue clarifications for the purpose of effective implementation of these guidelines.

By order.

(Sd.) M . K. HANJURA,
Registrar General.
